- “I’m stuck and don’t know what to do!”

“The Professional Mentoring and Coaching Course by Don Turner was; educational, inspirational and thoroughly enjoyable. He brings his own management and life experience to bear, together with studies from many and varied relevant sources. There are opportunities to; discuss and do practical’s, meet new faces, share common experiences, verify what you know and learn new skills.”

Daniele Thripp - Team Leader, One Essex Court

“This is the second such time I have attended one of Don’s courses. They are always well structured, informative and thought provoking. Don’s vast knowledge and experience supports the learner to appreciate new ways of thinking which can be built upon and developed for the good of all those involved.

Jackie Maskew - Chambers Director, St Ives Chambers

"The mentoring training provided by Don Turner was excellent. He used his experience as a management coach to guide us through the stages of mentoring. During the course we gained an understanding of the differences in client preference and boundaries, which was extremely insightful when considering how the mentee/mentor relationship works. We all felt confident in our new skills and are enjoying putting them into practice."

Lucy Burrows, on behalf of the Institute of Barristers' Clerks

These practical sessions will run with a limited number of delegates, so we can protect the integrity of the experience, and make the outcome as bespoke as possible to you.

This workshop is designed to be engaging and easy to follow for those seeking to improve their mentoring and coaching skills.
